

FIONA F. BORDADOR

STUDENT

Profile

I'm Fiona Bordador, a BSIT-BA student at FEU Tech. I'm passionate about both technology and business, always eager to learn more about how they intersect. Beyond academics, I love exploring new things, traveling to new places, and indulging in my interests in makeup and fashion. I believe in the power of innovation and enjoy applying creativity to everything I do. With my diverse interests and skills, I'm ready to make a difference in today's digital world.
